

Are you a Franklin Sophomore interested in

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY,
ENGINEERING, or MATH (STEM)?

If so, apply to the FREE
University of Washington
STEM<sub>SUB</sub> PROGRAM

STEM<sub>sub</sub>
math science upward bound
University of Washington

A University of Washington program that helps low-income and first-generation students excel in high school, get into college and STEM majors, and graduate with a STEM degree

APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 12TH

Join for

HELP DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR

Free workshops, tutoring, and advising

Test-prep and online instruction

Help applying for colleges, STEM majors, scholarships and financial aid

STEM Career Exploration

Join for

CHALLENGING SUMMERS

Free 6 week STEM program on the UW campus with real professors, lectures, and labs

College Prep and Technical Writing Classes

Research and Internship opportunities and STEM field trips

Bus passes and lunch stipends provided

LEARN MORE

If you're a Sophomore and not in Upward Bound or TRIO Talent Search attend an informational meeting or pick up an application in the counseling office or online at uwmsub.org/apply

Questions?

(206) 543-9288

uwmsub@uw.edu

or see your Counselor

